

Financial Education Network Directory

Seattle King County Asset Building Collaborative and Bank on Seattle-King County work with providers to ensure that listings in the Financial Education Network directory reflect accurate and current information. However, you must contact providers directly to confirm program schedules, make appointments, and register for classes.

The services listed are being offered as resources to help Seattle and King County residents find the information they need, although advice given by providers does not necessarily reflect the views of the Seattle King County Asset Building Collaborative or Bank on Seattle-King County.

Our Financial Education Providers Network offers free classes and seminars to help you learn about managing your finances. Contact them directly, or view the Financial Education Calendar for a schedule of upcoming classes and seminars being offered at www.EveryoneIsWelcome.org.

Note: Many of these providers have staff or interpreters who can assist clients in languages other than English on an individual basis. If you have a specific language need, please inquire directly with the agency listed.
